

Hi, Mellon Parents & Guardians...

Yes, it's that time once again. Mellon yearbooks are on sale NOW! Just follow the directions below for online ordering. I won't see the final list of orders until the sale closes in January. You will receive an email receipt from the website, and you can always go back to check for an order by clicking "find an order" and entering your email into the upper right corner of the Yearbook Forever site. Please remember that I sold out of every extra book last year.

Thanks for your support of the Mellon yearbook,

Rich Hines
